

The Larry Keeton Theatre

108 Donelson Pike
Nashville TN 37213

Press Release

Contact: Jamie London
615-883-8375
jlondon@fiftyforward.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 18, 2015

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

Opening Thursday, December 3rd and running through December 20th, The Larry Keeton Theatre presents the Middle Tennessee premier of 'a 1940s Radio Christmas Carol'.

From the writers and composers of Disney's successful High School Musical Series comes 'a 1940s Radio Christmas Carol', the long awaited sequel to 'The 1940s Radio Hour'. A nostalgic trip back to the days of live radio broadcasts featuring comedy and drama, peppered with holiday musical favorites plus new songs in the swing style.

It's Christmas Eve 1943, at WOV-Radio Satellite Studio in Newark, New Jersey. Economic hardships of WWII find The Feddington Players broadcasting from a hole-in-the-wall studio, on the lobby level of the Hotel Aberdeen. Noisy plumbing, missed cues, electrical blackouts, and over-the-top theatrics propel their contemporary "take" on Dickens' A Christmas Carol to a simultaneously comedic and heart-wrenching dramatic climax. An entertaining excursion into the mayhem and madness of a live radio show 'a 1940's Radio Christmas Carol' will sing its way into your heart.

Dinner seating for the holiday meal begins at 5:45 pm with curtain at 7:00 pm Thursday- Saturdays and seating at 12:45 pm with curtain at 2:00 pm on Sunday matinees. Dinner/Show Tickets $21 for children 12 and under, $30 ages 13 to adults. Call 615-883-8375 or visit www.thelarrykeetontheatre.org

Starring (pictured bottom left to right) Ava Troy, Melissa Husebo, Donna Driver, Bryan Lelek, Dan Childers, Crystal Kurek, Kevin Driver, Jason Scott, Elliott Robinson. Not pictured Austin Reeves and Riley Bolton.

This production of 'a 1940s Radio Christmas Carol' is made possible through generous grants from the Tennessee Arts Commission, Metro Arts Commission of Nashville, FiftyForward, Wilson Bank and Trust, Advertising Vehicles, and our presenting season sponsor McKendree Village, and through licensing agreements with Samuel French Inc.

About The Larry Keeton Theatre

The Larry Keeton Theatre, located at 108 Donelson Pike in the FiftyForward building, is a 150-seat nonprofit, community dinner theatre. Now in its 13th season and rated as the third highest attended theatre in Nashville according to the Nashville Business Journal, it is operated by The Senior Center for the Arts, a non-profit corporation and a wholly- owned subsidiary of FiftyForward.